

Dr. O. Kranthi Priya has a Doctoral degree in English Language Education from the English and Foreign Language University, Hyderabad. Her M.Phil research was on Developing Reading Skills and her Ph.D research focuses on Continuous Comprehensive Evaluation.. She is currently working as an assistant professor in Vardhaman College of Engineering. She has presented papers and conducted workshops for teachers and learners. Her areas of interest include teacher training, material production and assessment and evaluation. Her major achievement till date is coordinating a teacher training program under the aegis of the State Government of Karnataka and Sarva Siksha Abhiyaan.